FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

STEVENS RECEIVES BUSINESS AWARD

CHARLESTON -- Michelle Stevens of Charleston is the recipient of the Management Faculty Excellence Award from Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business and Applied Sciences.

Chosen each year by the management faculty, the recipient must have excelled in the classroom and demonstrated a true understanding of management as a discipline and as a practical application.

A 1991 graduate of West Richland High School in Noble, Stevens received a bachelor's of science in business degree in management from Eastern in May. She and her husband, Rick, live in Charleston. Stevens is the daughter of James L. Gibson and the late Eloise Gibson of Noble.

Eastern, located in Charleston, is a public, residential university that places priority on teaching excellence. More than 11,000 students are enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs. Non-traditional and part-time students are enrolled in programs at both on- and off-campus sites. University faculty are involved in a wide range of research and public service activities.
